

Pantelis Angelidis

Pantelis is an innovator entrepreneur. A Telecommunications Engineer by education, he is active in telemedicine and Digital Health for 20 years. He is the founder and president of VIDAVO, an innovative eHealth SME in Greece and he has patented two telemedicine devices. Dr. Angelidis was a visiting scholar of MIT Media Lab in 2009-10 and again in 2015. He is an Associate Professor on eHealth at UOWM and a visiting lecturer at UB Medical School. He is a Marshall Memorial fellow and an alumni of the Bodosaki foundation. His main interest lies in turning research results into sustainable businesses focusing on technologies for preventive health and active aging. Pantelis Angelidis is the President of the Alexander Innovation Zone S.A., the managing organization responsible for the entire plan, development and realization of the initiative of the Thessaloniki Innovation Zone. His company is founding member of the Hellenic Association of Mobile Application Companies (HAMAC) and since 2015 he is member of the Board of Directors. He is currently the Secretary General of the BoD at HAMAC.