

Founder of ATLANTIS Consulting S.A. He holds an MSc in Technical Change & Industrial Strategy from PREST Institute of the University of Manchester and a BA in Civil Engineering from the Democriton University of Thrace. His continuous support in RTD project management and his contribution to the formation of technology strategies and business development, have created a portfolio of strong working relationships and contacts with many high-tech IT firms and policy makers globally. Honorary member in the Hellenic Association of Mobile Application Companies (HAMAC) for contributing to the establishment of the Hellenic Mobile Cluster and the implementation of the HAMAC vision. Coordinator of MOBIP aiming at the support of competitiveness of high growth businesses in the mobile service sector. Facilitator of Hellenic Mobile Cluster (HMC) and coordinator of the EMMINVEST project funded by DG Enterprise and Industry aiming at developing the co-investment mechanisms and culture of VC in the European mobile sector.